

DISLEY & DISTRICT FLOWER CLUB

Newsletter May 2025

Our demonstrator tonight is Alison Cooper with "Head Tales"
We extend a warm welcome to all visitors.

Bedding plant sale tonight

May

22nd Club outing to Biddulph Grange. Pickups the Rams Head in Disley at 9.30am then High Lane at the bus stop opposite the Church 9.30ish and Hazel Grove outside what was Carpet World 9.40am. Back about 3.30pm. The coach cost is £25. As Biddulph Grange is a National Trust property we will collect numbers of non NT members group price is £11.70.

June

11th Club night. The demonstrator is Elizabeth Bishop and her title is "Happy Wander". An interesting evening to hear all about her latest travels.

Plant table

17th & 18th Royal Cheshire Show.

25th Opportunity to visit Quirky Flowers, Cheddleton. This is a morning visit to their flower fields you'll need sturdy shoes to walk round the fields or sit and look at the view. The £10 entry includes coffee & cake plus a demonstration and talk by the owners. Transportation & it's cost will be determined by numbers so watch this space.

July

9th Club night. Tracey Davies is one of the Area Demonstrators who qualified in 2024 and her title is "A walk in the woods".

14th Area Social Day at Abbeywood details to be confirmed.

August

13th Workshop at Windlehurst Methodist Church creating arrangements for the Disley & Lyme Horticultural Show. This year's theme is linked to the club's Blue Sapphire Anniversary so it will be "Shades of Blue" the addition of white is allowed but optional.

14th Club Garden Party. Save the date.

15th Staging at Disley & Lyme Horticultural Show

16th Disley & Lyme Horticultural Show